And while he thinks that she's a very special lady
Bm                            E7
It's probably not the way he'd choose to go
                      D            A                    Bm                    F#m
And a lifetime of longing looks would cause too much distraction

Good thing that he's not gay anymore

You might be Tom Cruise crazy too

You'd flash your big white shiny smile
                      D                    Dm
You'd buy expensive shoes
                      A            C#7    F#
But you'd be the only man on Earth

Tom Cruise is always getting older

He knows he'll never be that young again
A C#7 F#
And when Tom Cruise looks back over his shoulder
Bm E7
He sees a thousand younger leading men
D A Bm F#m
He knows someday he'll have to play an old retarded grandpa
D A E7
While someone younger plays his sexy son

Tom Cruise knows somewhere there's a place for him
F C Dm E7
He's not of this world anymore

VERSE 3

A C#7 F#
Somewhere in some secluded castle
Bm E7
Poor Tom Cruise sits staring at the wall
A C#7 F#
And the outside world is always such a hassle
Bm E7
Sometimes he won't go out at all
D A
There are millions who know his name

Everybody loves him
D A E7
Why is it that he feels so alone?
