F Bbm Eb F
Come sit at the table under October's able skies

Bbm
Once we'd seen eye to eye

Eb F
I'd known that I'd pass you by, and I tried

Bbm Eb
The bells chime seven times

Bbm
Completed at nine

Eb F
The world moves slower, I find

Bbm Eb F
No, but I learned of time by your hands

Bbm Eb F
And in shallow waters' end I learned not to swim, but to lie

Bbm
I'll wait for now

Eb
'Til it's ready to burn out

Bbm
I insist on doubts

Eb
We're already lying on the glass

F
The glass
