Now I know I'm not handsome, no good looks or wealth

D7 G
But the girls I chase say my plain face will compromise their health.

G E7 A7
Now I know fellows worse than me bow-legged and boss-eyed
A7 D7

Walking out with lovely women clinging to their side.
G A7 D7 G
Now if women like them like men like those, why don't women like me?

C G A7 D7
Look at Empress Josephine, the most attractive women that ever was seen,
G E7 A7 D7
Yet Napoleon short and fat, captivates a lovely looking dame like that
G A7 D7 G E7
Now if women like them like men like those, why don't women like me? Hey, hey
A7 D7 G
Why don't women like me?

G A7
Last night I went out walking, my intentions were to click
D7 G
But the sights I saw whilst walking out, they nearly made me sick.
E7 A7
I must admit I saw some girls, attractive little dears
D7
Arm in arm with ugly men with cauliflower ears.
G A7 D7 G
Now if women like them like men like those, why don't women like me?

C G A7 D7
 What can the attraction be, that's the thing that always starts to worry me.
 G E7 A7 D7
 Although I haven't got a bean, I've got a lot of things that girls have never seen.
 G A7 D7 G E7
 Now if women like them like men like those, why don't women like me? Hey, hey
 A7 D7 G D7
 Why don't women like me?

G A7 D7 G
 Now if women like them like men like those, why don't women like me?
 C G A7 D7
 Take Lord Nelson with one limb, Lady William Hamilton she fell for him.
 G E7 A7 D7
 With one eye and one arm gone west, she ran like the devil and she grabbed the rest.
 G A7 D7 G E7
 Now if women like them like men like those, why don't women like me? Hey, hey
