

Kiwaya KS-1

...THIS IS HOW OTHERS SEE IT !

...THIS IS HOW I SEE IT!

I decided to buy a ukulele on a whim...I didn't want to spend a fortune on an instrument that I had never played before. I was aware that I shouldn't buy a cheap one because I'd hate how it sounded and stayed in tune...I originally thought a tenor uke would be nice because it had a larger finger board... Then I met this lovely Kiwaya Soprano KS-1 and fell in love! She has such a sweet tone. Her finger action is nice. She's only a plain plywood box made in Japan. But to me she's as sweet as a ripe peach! So if you want a nice ukulele that's a step above the cheap ones, but not as dear as the fancy ones, try picking this one and see how sweet it is! 🍑

She's a little Peach

Real life testimonial by Karen Wagner