

A Christmas Duel

The Hives and Cyndi Lauper

VERSE 1

I bought no gifts this year and I slept with your sister
I know I should have thought twice before I kissed her
But with the year we had last and the dress that she wore
I just went along for the ride and I came back for more
And I'm sorry, baby

VERSE 2

I bought no tree this year and I slept with your brother
I wrecked your Daddy's car and went down on your Mother
I set your record collection on fire and said I never knew
Felt kind of bad about that and I know you did too

BRIDGE

So whatever you say, it's all fine by me
Who the fuck anyway wants a Christmas tree
Cause the snow keeps on fallin', even though we were bad
It'll cover the filth, we should both just be glad

CHORUS

Am F C
And spend spend spend this Chris-Christmas together

VERSE 3

C Am
I married you last year, bet you thought I was sober, right?
F C
But I was drunk as a skunk and I made a mistake, this could all have been over
C Am
Ah honey please don't excuse your behaviour
F C
Cause I hired a hitman and changed your will, it's now all in my favour

BRIDGE
