

Sally MacLennane

The Pogues

INTRO

VERSE 1

D G D
Well Jimmy played harmonica in the pub where I was born
D G A
He played it from the night time to the peaceful early morn
G D A
He soothed the souls of psychos and the men who had the horn
D G A D
And they all looked very happy in the morning

VERSE 2

D G D
Now Jimmy didn't like his place in this world of ours
D G A
Where the elephant man broke strong men's necks, when he'd had too many powers
G D A
So I'm sad to see the grieving of the people that I'm leaving
D G A D
And he took the road for God knows in the morning

BRIDGE

D G D
We walked him to the station in the rain
D G A
We kissed him as we put him on the train
G D G
And we sang him a song of times long gone
D A D
Though we knew that we'd be seeing him again

CHORUS

D
I'm sad to say I must be on my way
G D A
So buy me beer and whiskey 'cause I'm going far away
D
I'd like to think of me returning when I can
G D A D
To the greatest little boozier and to Sally MacLennane

VERSE 3

D G D
The years passed by the times had changed I grew to be a man
D G A
I learned to love the virtues of sweet Sally MacLennane
G D A
I took the jeers and drank the beers and crawled back home at dawn
D G A D
And ended up a barman in the morning

VERSE 4

D G D
I played the pump and took the hump and watered whiskey down
D G A
I talked of whores and horses to the men who drank the brown
G D A
I heard them say that Jimmy's making money far away
D G A D
And some people left for heaven without warning

VERSE 5

When Jimmy came back home he was surprised that they were gone
He asked me all the details of the train that they went on
Some people they are scared to croak but Jimmy drank until he choked
And he took the road for heaven in the morning
